Dear valued partner,

At Québec Blue Cross[®], protecting the privacy of personal information is one of our top priorities. Therefore, we have implemented a new process to ensure that documents containing this type of information are transmitted in a secure way.

As of March 31st, 2022, every document likely to contain personal information must be submitted via a secure file transmission form available through Your secure access of the Advisor resources web page. Our Advisor's guide has also been updated to reflect this change.

Personal information includes, but is not limited to:

- Name;
- Date of birth;
- Medical information;
- Address;
- Phone number;
- Billing information;
- Etc.

As of this date, documents containing such information can no longer be sent by email or fax.

Thank you for your continued support.
